Shopping

Baixin Plaza (5-minute walking)

It is a large-scale urban complex located at the intersection of the two core business districts in Baiyun District, north of Guangzhou. Within a 5-kilometer radius, it serves a population of over 2 million and enjoys a rich transportation network and mature living facilities. It is one of the most commercially valuable urban complexes in the north of Guangzhou.

Guangzhou Baiyun MixC Mall (5-minute walking)

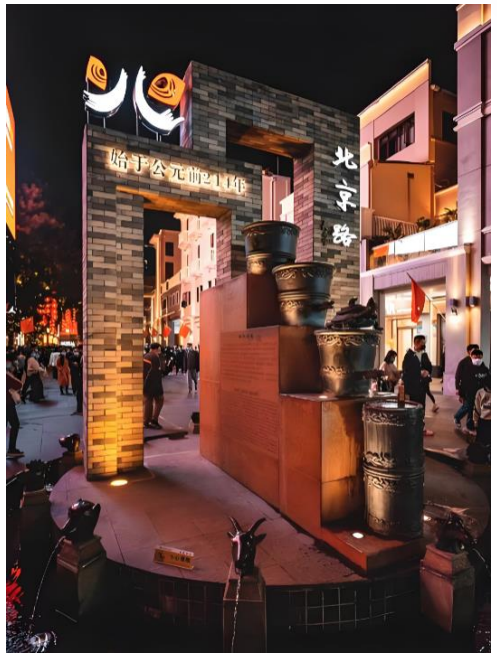

Opened on December 19, 2025, the Guangzhou Baiyun MixC Mall is a major new retail destination in Guangzhou. It signifies the arrival of the renowned "MixC" brand of the China Resources Mixc Lifestyle in the city, designed as a convenient "Neighborhood Family Gathering Center"

Local Tourism – Shopping

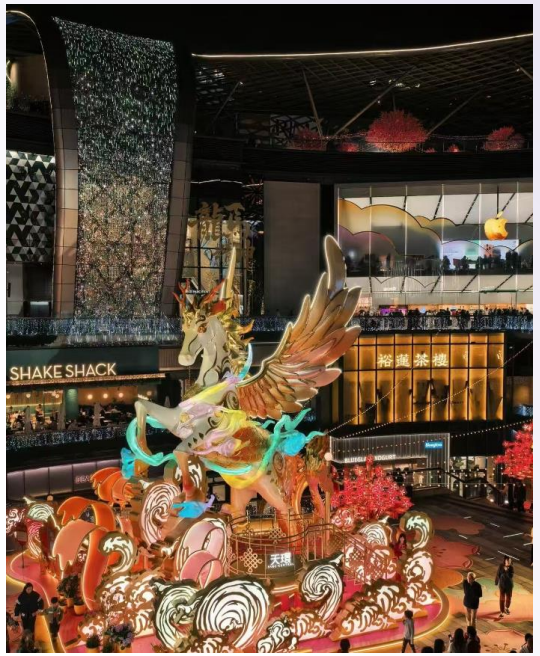

Canton Tower

A landmark symbol of the city. Ascend the tower for panoramic views, experience the thrilling Bubble Tram or the hair-raising Sky Drop. The tower is spectacularly illuminated at night.

Bei Jing Road Pedestrian Street

A vibrant fusion where ancient road ruins dating back a thousand years meet modern commerce. It's a food paradise and a prime shopping destination, especially lively at night.

Parc Central

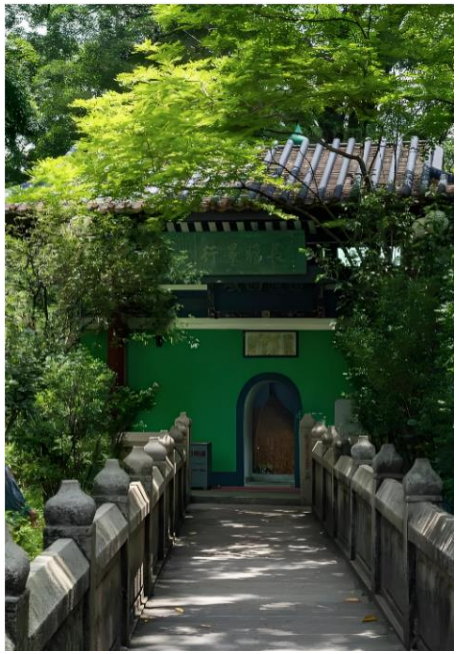

Guangzhou’s most architecturally striking luxury mall. Imagine shopping at top global brands in a stunning open-air ‘double-ring’ glass building with a central park, all seamlessly connected to the subway. It’s where fashion, food, and city life come together in style.

Local Tourism – Religion

Sacred Heart Cathedral

One of only four all-stone Gothic cathedrals in the world. Marvel at its magnificent architecture and the exquisite stained glass windows inside, which create a serene and awe-inspiring atmosphere.

The Mosque of the Saints

A Gateway to Islamic History in China: Revered as one of the earliest mosques in China, traditionally believed to be associated with Sa'd ibn Abi Waqqas, a companion of the Prophet Muhammad, who is said to have brought Islam to China in the 7th century. It serves as a living testament to the long history of Islam in Guangzhou.

Great Buddha Temple

Experience a profound contrast at the Great Buddha Temple, where the serene ambiance of an ancient Buddhist sanctuary exists just steps away from one of Guangzhou's most bustling modern shopping streets.

Local Tourism – Culture

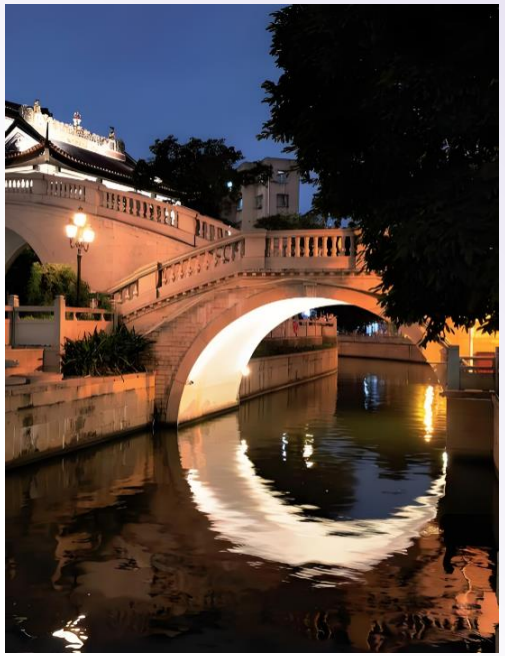

Shameen

An oasis of European-style architecture, bearing the historical marks of the 19th-century British and French concessions. It offers a peaceful, leisurely atmosphere perfect for a stroll.

Chen Clan Ancestral Hall

A pinnacle of Lingnan architectural art, renowned for its exquisite decorative arts known as the “Three Carvings, Two Sculptures, One Casting, and One Painting” (stone, wood, brick carvings; ceramic & plaster sculptures; cast iron; and paintings).

Yongqing Fang

A (internet-famous) cultural district revitalized from old Xiguan residences. It features a creative blend of old and new, with Bruce Lee's ancestral home, the Zhongshuge bookstore, and unique boutique shops.
